

From 119th History
by Beard

Company F Captian William H. Crowder's company formerly called ~~Company~~ <sup>COMPANY</sup> enlisted October 1, 1861 for one year, reorganized April 30, 1862, assigned to the 49th Regiment by special order No. 1, paragraph IV, Ag. 190, dated January 2, 1862 prior mustered rolls for pay show company was "unattached" but were made out as Company K, 49th Regiment, evidently after company had been assigned to the regiment Captian William H. Crowder, John G. Lobban

<sup>Robert</sup>
Company G (1st) Captian ~~Rob~~ M. Stribling's company, Fauquier County enlisted July 1, 1861 for one year, organized June 22, 1861, detached from 49th Regiment in September or October 1861 and became captian Robert M. Stribling's company Virginia Light Artillery, which became assigned Compay A, 38th ~~Battalion~~ Virginia Light Artillery, company also known as the "Fauquier Artillery"

BATTALION

Company G (2nd) same as Company B

Company G (3rd) Rappahannock Rifles, Rappahannock County, Formerly company I, enlisted July 22, 1861, for one year, reorganized April 30, 1862. Captians George C. Vandenslice, William D. Moffett.

<sup>New Market Volunteer</sup>
Company H. ~~Newmarket volume~~, Shenandoah County formerly Company C enlisted June 17, 1861 for one year, reorganized May 1, 1862, captian Henry N. B. Wood, Paul Straton.

X Company I Amherst Rough and Ready's, Amherst Company formerly Company B, enlisted April 23, 1861 for one year, reorganized April 30, 1862. Captian Charles B. Christian (to Major), William N. Horsley.

Company <sup>X</sup> Sperryville Sharp Shooters, Rappahannock County, formerly called company D, enlisted June 8, 1861 for one year, mustered July 18, 1861 as Captian Gibson's Company, 7th Regiment Virginia Infantry to which it was attached until August 7, 1861, when it was assigned to the 49th Regiment Virginia infantry, (Captians John C. Gibson (to it Colonel), Presley ~~Co.~~ Eastham, R. M. Spicer.

C.

Gift of Mr. Willard Jenkins August 1995

Regiment Virginia ~~Volunteers~~ <sup>Volunteers</sup>

- Smith, William Colonel - 1861-1863 (to brigadier 1/31)
- Gibson, J. Catlett, Colonel 1863-1864
- ✓ Moffett, William D. Captian commander 1865

49th Regeiment is reported as having been organized in August 1861. Three companys are stated to have served in the battle of Manassas, July 21, 1861, under Col. Willima Smith, prior to the organization of the Regiment. These companys formed the nucleus of the 49th Regiment. The regiment was reorganized May 1. 1862. after which the company letters were changed.

X Company A, <sup>A</sup> ~~Captian~~ Jerome B. <sup>Norville's</sup> ~~Norville's~~ Company, formerly called Company F, enlisted July 1, 1861 for one year, mustered July 2, 1861, reorganized April 30, 1862. (Evells Guard)

X Company B - Quantico Guards, Dumfries, Prince William County, formerly called Company G (2), enlisted July 1, 1861 for the war, mustered July 16, 1861 and remained on duty in Dumfries until March 8, 1862, when it left and joined the regiment March 28, 1862. It was first mustered with no Company letter, became Company G (2nd) after the transfer of Company G (1st) to ~~Artillerly~~ and at the reorganization of the regiment, became Company B, ~~Captian~~ Chancellor A. Nelson.
Artillery

X Company C - Captian Edward Murray's company, formerly called Company H enlisted May 28, 1861 for one year, officers re-elected at reorganization April 30, 1862, captians, Edward Murray, Buckner M. Randolph.

X Company D, Warren Blues, Warren County, Formerly called Company E, enlisted June 17, 1861 for one year, officers re-elected at reorgnaization April 30, 1862. Captians Mandly T. Wheatley, Bailey S. Jacobs, John B. Updike.

County Company E--Flint Hill Rifles, (also Flint Hill Rifleman) <sup>Rappahannock</sup> ~~Rappahanneck~~ Company formerly Company A, enlisted June 16, 1861 for one year, reorganized April 30, 1862. Captians William J. Williams, Wellington Eastham, Joseph M. Anderson

Co. H

Nov. - Dec., 1863 - camp near Somersville Ford, Va.

Starting building winter quarters and picket grounds near Rappahawk Station and north of it on Nov. 1, 1863.

Reinforced La. & N. C. Brigade, portion of Brigade captured on Nov. 8, 1863.

Night of Nov. 8, 1863, went into line of battle and recon. near Stevensburg.

Crossed Rapidan Nov. 9, 1863 and camped at Kermamed til Nov. 27, 1863. Marched to Vendiersville, Orange, Va. Cannonaded by Yankees, threw up breastworks, fought skirmish and artillery bombardment.

Nov. 29 - Dec. 2, Yankees retreated during night, captured few prisoners.

Dec. 4, 1863, camped near Somersville Ford, Va., for winter.

April - Oct., 1864 - near New Market, Va.

New Market Vol.

Enlisted July 1861 for 1 yr., reorganized April 30, 1862.

Co. I Formerly Co. B

July - Aug., 1861 - not stated.

Sept. - Dec., 1861 - Camp Pickens.

Jan. - April, 1862 - not stated.

Nov. - Dec., 1863 - Somersville Ford, Va.

April - Oct., 1864 - near New Market, Va.

Amherst Rough & Ready

Enlisted April 23, 1861, for 12 months, reorganized April 30, 1862.

Co. K Formerly Co. D

"Sperryville Sharp Shooters"

Went into barracks June 18, 1861 at Sperryville, Rappahannock Co. Ordered to Culpepper C. H., July 11, 1861, ordered to Manassas on July 20, 1861. Traveled by railroad, arrived 10 o'clock AM July 21, fell in with 7th Va. Regt., engaged with 7th Va. at Manassas, went to Centreville, Va., with 7th til Aug. 7, 1861. Marched to Manassas, permanently attached to 49th Regt. Had one man killed - Stephen Dotson.

July - Aug., 1861 - Camp Pickens.

Sept. - Dec., 1861 - Camp Pickens.

Jan. - April, 1862 - Manassas Junction.

Nov. - Dec., 1863 - Somersville Ford, Va.

April - Oct., 1864 - near New Market, Va.

(2)

Co. D Formerly Co. E"Warren Blues"

Part of charge on Rickett's battery in 1st Manassas.

July - Oct., 1861 - Camp Pickens.

Nov. - Dec., 1861 - Camp Pickens.

Jan. - Feb., 1862 - Camp Pickens.

Feb. 20, 1862, detailed to be drilled in heavy artillery under Capt. Triplet, commanding heavy artillery battalion at Camp Pickens.

March - April, 1862 - Yorktown.

Left Camp Pickens with regiment and brigade compiled of 4th N. C. Regiment, 27th & 28th Georgia Regiment, Heavy artillery battalion, commanded by Col. George A. Anderson, went to Yorktown by way of Rapidan Station and points south to Yorktown, complained of being near enemy and infernal gun boats.

May - June, 1862 - participated in Richmond fights June 25, 1862, and May 31, 1862, fight at Seven Pines, besides many skirmishes and ~~Pickett's~~ Pickett's fights.

Nov. - Dec., 1863 - Somersville Ford, Va.

Sept. - Oct., 1864 - New Market, Va.

Co. E Formerly Co. A

(Flint Hill Rifles or Riflemen)

Camp Pickens

July - Dec., 1861.

Jan. - Feb., 1862.

Yorktown Area

March - April, 1862

May - June, 1862 - not stated.

Nov. - Dec., 1863 - Somersville Ford, Va.

April - Oct., 1864 - New Market, Va.

Enlisted June 12, 1861 for 12 months; reorganized April 30, 1862.

Co. F Formerly Co. K

Report by Capt. J. B. Loffan, stating that A. N. Butler died April, 1862; Zacharia Morris died April, 1862, J. A. Wright killed in action May 31, 1862; and they did not get paid on June 6, 1862, at Camp Mitchell.

Nov. - Dec., 1861 - Camp Mitchell - dated 1862.

Jan. - Feb., 1862 - Camp Pickens.

March - April, 1862 - Yorktown, Va.

June - July, 1862 - not stated.