Miss Annie Almond Goes on Caribbean Cruise

Miss Annie Miller Almond of Washington, center, is bid bon voyage by Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Reid of New York as she boards the SS Argentina, February 5th for a Caribbean cruise. Though Capt. Reid was not aboard the Argentina this cruise, he assisted Miss Almond in making her plans for the trip which she said was the most exciting and interesting ten days she ever spent.

Mrs. Margaret Trochten, left, looks on as Miss Annie Miller Almond of Washington is introduced to Captain Paul Scott, master of the SS Argentina by cruise director Danny Loans. The ladies were invited to the Captain's quarters for cocktails prior to joining him for dinner during their recent Caribbean cruise.
